SEMINAR

WOMEN ON THE MOVE AND MENTAL HEALTH

CALL FOR POSTER

Posters showing/presenting innovative and original research on mental health, migration and gender are solicited. In general the seminar is interested in posters focusing on the following topics:

- Social determinants of mental health;
- Gender and migration health history determinants on response to treatments;
- Different dimensions of the migration phenomenon, with a focus on the gender variable;
- Different aspects of gender-based violence;
- Femicide: data, prevention strategies, public discourse;
- Cultural competent and Social Psychiatry;
- Health and Gender;
- Mental health in cinema narratives.

The accepted posters will be included in a dedicated publication. Ten posters, between those selected, will be presented during the seminar. The poster's presentations could be taken in presence or online via Teams.
