CALL FOR PAPERS AND POSTERS

The Scientific Committee of CISEM (Inter-University Centre for Studies on Late Antique Housing in the Mediterranean) invites you to submit proposals for the 4th CISEM International Congress "Living in Late Antique Mediterranean", that will be held in Cuenca (Universidad de Castilla-La Mancha, España) on November 7th-9th 2022.

The 4th International Congress, as the previous three, aims at promoting the scientific exchange on Late Antique world and, particularly, on Late Antique Housing. In the last years the knowledge of housing in the pars Occidentalis of the Roman Empire, as well as in the East, has shown great improvements. The International Congress wants to present and discuss the new data acquired as well as the methodological changes in this field, through the presentation of archaeological excavations results and new thematic studies.

The Congress will last three days with sessions dedicated to the presentation and the discussion of general topics regarding Late Antique Housing in the Mediterranean, with special insights on particular contexts.

The works will be in presence. If the pandemic situation do not allow it, the Congress will be online.

A visit to Segóbriga is planned on November 6th, and a visit to the Roman mausoleum of Llanes, Ercávica and to the villa of Noheda on November 10th (launch for a fee). During the three days of the Congress, it will be possible to visit Cuenca, with access to the Archaeological Museum and the cathedral.

We invite you to submit a synthesis of your proposal in the form of an oral paper or a poster. The papers should be about general and cross-cutting topics, while the posters should be specifically dedicated to the presentation of ongoing research projects or updates on particular sites. Only original and unpublished works will be considered.

THEMATIC AREAS

- 1.- Continuity and discontinuity in Late Antique housing.
- 2.- Furniture and decorations
- 3.- Residential spaces and the scenography of power
- 4.- Residential topography in Late Antique cities
- 5.- Villae and working spaces
- 6.- Building techniques, building site and perishable materials
7. Building transformations in Early Middle Ages
8. Dwelling in Hispania: new results

The official languages of the Congress are Italian, Spanish, English, French and German.

The Congress Proceedings will be edited by the Scientific Committee of the CISEM and will include both the papers and the posters presented during the meeting.

ABSTRACT SUBMISSION

The deadline to submit abstracts is March 31st, 2022, to the following address: disci.cisem@unibo.it. The abstracts should not exceed 300 words and should also include the following information: Title of the Poster/Paper, Author's name and institution, Author's e-mail address, three Keywords. The content should precisely summarize the topic and it should be strictly related to the themes of the Congress.

The Scientific Committee will select the papers and the posters within May 1st:

- The accepted papers will be 30 max.
- The accepted posters will be 40 max.

A draft programme of the Congress will be sent to all the participants before June 1st and published on the website <https://centri.unibo.it/cisem/it>
