Language(s) and Conflict

K | C

KNOWLEDGE & COGNITION

This lecture series aims to delve into the complex interrelationships between language(s) and conflict. The exploration is multifaceted, involving examinations from semantic, linguistic, and political perspectives.

Semantic Conflicts

Impact of Harmful Language Games and conceptual blindness

Spaces of Agency

14 MARCH 2024

TEAMS ROOM
http://bit.ly/3weUoKW

15–16:15

Making it abstract, making it contestable – Politicization at the intersection of political and cognitive sciences

Claudia Mazzuca (La Sapienza, Rome) and Matteo Santarelli (University of Bologna)

10 APRIL 2024

TEAMS ROOM
http://bit.ly/3weUoKW

15–16:15

Irenism as an attempt to cohabitate peacefully with conflicting vocabularies

Michela Bella (University of Molise)

15 MAY 2024

TEAMS ROOM
http://bit.ly/3weUoKW

15–16:15

"Sinners and salvation" – An inferentialist framework to make sense of the function of religious tropes in Duterte's drug war

Tracy Llanera (University of Connecticut)

19 JUNE 2024

TEAMS ROOM
http://bit.ly/3weUoKW

15–16:15

Language Activism and social justice – case-studies from Norway

Bjørn Ramberg (University of Oslo) and Unn Røyneland (University of Oslo)